III. OLD BUSINESS

A. Arts Midwest World Fest--Ondeckoza from Japan--Feb. 18th-24th, 2018

Mirror previous school schedule and work in time for our community sponsors and partners.

- 1. Planning and scheduling of Community workshops and performance
- 2. News release/poster distribution

Terri and Christine were putting posters together and working out how to distribute them to the community. Tracy is working on potential table tent advertisement with students.

B. Arts Center-- Community Survey

1. Approval of final draft questions

The questions on the survey were approved. Create Business sized cards with survey link to hand out to community members and at workshops.

2. Final plan of distribution of survey--website, social media, potential paper copies and the corresponding sites where they will be available

Looking to distribute survey at the school performance. The City of Prairie du Chien committed to a $2000 donation to Arts Midwest for this performance series. We are also looking into radio PSA announcements in regards to the Ondekoza performance as it gets closer to the actual performance at the school. Mr. Smudde will follow up with radio WPRE on the advertising price.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Fallfire--Art Show

John presented on Fallfire. This is a celebration of local artists from all disciplines. School's new venue is a natural partnership with this event in Mid-November, pairing nicely with the High School Musical. November 10th is the date for 2018.
